Newly Born Baby Possums Climb To Mother's Pouch

Scientists have observed that newly born baby possums climb unaided to the mother's pouch, which serves as an "incubator" during their first two months of growth.

Port Arthur concerns which run ads regularly on these pages find they are good "incubators" and "hatch" new business with unfailing regularity.

Are you "hatching" any new business from the News?

U. S. Threatens to Quit Pay Parley

Nursery Milk Bottle Fund Needs Offerings

THOSE pennies, nickels and dimes you get back as change at drug store, restaurant and other counters, folks, would go a long way toward providing milk for the kiddies in the Day Nursery, if you'd just drop the change in the milk bottles sitting near the cash registers.

Somehow or other the milk bottles are not receiving as much spare change as they used to, according to officials in the Women's Missionary Society, who adopted this means for raising a milk fund for the Day Nursery. That's probably because many people don't know what money until just recently the milk bottle funds were generally sufficient to defray the expenses of providing all the milk used in the Day Nursery here. Then the income from this source dropped off, and lastly, yet come back to what it once was, or what the sponsors say they feel it should be. So today they urged that folks remember the Day Nursery kiddies' milk fund when handed small change, and give a part of it, at least, through one of the handy milk bottles.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Premier Poincare probably will not hedge from his stand regarding the French America's disapproval. It was thought in well informed quarters here today.

$13,500 Red Cross Budget Campaign To Reach Everyone

'Missionary' Groups to Carry Appeal to Every Organizing For Aid in Realizing Goal

Touching every organization and group of individuals in Port Arthur, the budget campaign for the Port Arthur Red Cross chapter got into swing Thursday.

As reports from the civic, fraternal, labor, church, women's clubs and organizations, business and professional men and residents in suburban districts are received, showing the progress made by each toward raising the quota of the $13,500 budget, the Red Cross is making this year, announcements of the returns showing 100 per cent results will be made. Red Cross officials said today.

Posters setting forth the appeal of the Red Cross were distributed throughout the business district of the city Thursday by high school boys, members of the Port Arthur Junior Red Cross chapter. A number of these posters have been placed in show windows, and today Red Cross officials requested that merchants who have not given the posters places in their windows do so.

The appeal of the Port Arthur Red Cross chapter for funds to carry on its health, social service, home purchasing, child welfare, and for ex-servicemen and their families during the ensuing year will be made before various organizations and groups in Port Arthur by Rev. J. A. Frampton, directing the 1932 Red Cross budget campaign. Red Cross officials said.

Campaign to Close Nov. 11

A number of individuals have been selected for this task and others will be appointed, they said, but no reports on the progress of their work had been received today.

Plans for bringing the budget campaign to a close by November 11, which is to be known as Red Cross Sunday, as well as Armistice Day, is feature of the outline for raising the $13,500 quota prepared by Rev. Frampton and other Red Cross officials. No house to house canvass will be made this year, but before the campaign ends, it is believed every individual in the city will have been reached and given an opportunity to contribute to the Red Cross work in Port Arthur, they said.

HUGHES INSISTS ON SHOWDOWN

Denies French Right to Limit Parley Scope

OFFICIALS PESSIMISTIC

Demands French Reaffirm Government Stand

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Premier Poincare probably will not hedge from his stand regarding the French America's disapproval. It was thought in well informed quarters here today.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The United States has made plain to France that it will withdraw from the proposed expert investigation of Germany's capacity to pay reparations if the scope of the conference is restricted in advance by Premier Poincare, it was learned today.

A communication was made to the French government by Secretary of State Hughes through the French charge d'affaires in Washington M. Andre de Laboulade, it was understood.

Limits Parley Scope.

The French charge conferred with Hughes a day or so ago, it is learned, and informed this government of Premier Poincare's attitude regarding the powers of the reparations commission to the general effect that the conference of experts cannot go into the question of changing the present total of the German indemnity.

Hughes immediately replied with a complete statement of the attitude of the American government. It is understood, pointing out that he regards such attempts by France to limit the scope of the conference in advance as most serious.

These facts constitute the explanation of the sudden change from confident optimism to extreme pessimism yesterday on the part of high officials here regarding the proposed reparations conference.

Fate Hangs by Thread.

The statements by France to Hughes is interpreted as a request for a complete reaffirmation of the attitude of the French government on the conference; in other words, that Hughes has called for a "showdown."

The fate of the proposed policy is regarded in informed quarters here as hanging by a thread.

There is not the slightest doubt in Washington that Hughes will withdraw the American government from this final attempt to bring about a settlement of the reparations question, if Poincare continues to insist upon his restrictions on the conference.

In this case, it is also believed that Hughes would make a complete statement to the American people of the failure of this latest move to settle the European crisis and would place the blame for this failure where it belongs.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Armed with a saxophone, a violin and a pair of Windsor ties, two federal prohibition agents raided a "music" shop and confiscated 210 quarts of Scotch. The proprietor was fined $200.

U. S. TO RESERVE STRIP FOR CITY

Land May Be Used For City Improvements

At the request of Port Arthur officials, the United States government is reserving 3,100 feet of land lying south of the city between the Sabine-Neches canal and Sabine lake, for city projects and will not advertise this strip of land for lease with other territory along the canal bank which is to be leased shortly. Mayor J. P. Logan announced this morning upon receipt of communication from Washington to that effect.

The city wants the property for the possible construction of a new incinerator or a municipal dock. Mayor Logan said, and is hopeful that the recommendations of the war department suggesting to the government that the 3,100 feet of land be converted to the city will meet with approval.

All of the land was previously leased for a period of five years by Port Arthur business men, the lease having expired July 1.

Mayor Logan said this morning it was not definite whether the city will build municipal docks or a new incinerator plant on the ground if it is obtained.

TURNING SLUETH TO SAVE KIN

Now Alleged Dope Peddler Lies in Jail

Inability to secure the release of a relative of his from the tomes of the drug habit with its attendant savings and sufferings caused a Port Arthur man to turn detective yesterday.

Today "Hog" Edmondson is in the city jail facing the federal charge for violation of the Harrison narcotic bill against the sale of drugs. Edmondson was arrested yesterday afternoon charged with the sale of narcotics.

Last night the drug habit reached into the Edmondson family, the city jail and struck at Edmondson. A doctor was summoned to give him medical attention and soothe the cravings for the drug. Police said this morning the doctor summoned last night gave Edmondson a "hook."

It was said by Chief of Police Walter Covington this morning that a man had come to him in an endeavor to rid a relative of the drug habit. All methods of persuasion had failed. The man, the chief said, was positive where the drug supply came from.

Posing as an agent of the relative, sent to purchase drugs, the man succeeded, it is alleged, in purchasing a quantity of dope, giving a marked bill in return for the narcotics.

Final Marked Bill Claim

When arrested yesterday by Chief Covington and Captain Fox, the marked bill was still in Edmondson's possession, police said this morning.

Efforts were being made this morning to secure the prisoner's release on bonds pending his preliminary trial before United States Commissioner Morris of Beaumont.

WHEN I WAS 20

BY JOE STROUD, Insurance Agent.

When I was 20, I was working on a house and garage ranch in southern California, sorting lemons. All I had to do was pick out the big lemons and the little lemons, roll them down a trough to a girl who crapped them in tissue paper. For this work I got $40 a month and room and board. That was in 1912.

PT. ARTHUR MEN IN $25,000 SUIT

C. V. Palmer, Officers and Ex-Officers Defendants

BEAUMONT, Texas, Nov. 2.—Hearing in the $25,000 damage suit of J. D. Stringer against C. V. Palmer started in 94th district court Friday morning. Both the plaintiff and defendant are from Port Arthur. Raymond Murray is attorney for the plaintiffs and Palmer is represented by Dyeus and Shivers.

The suit grew out of an arrest on March 5, 1925, when Stringer was held at the Port Arthur jail. Stringer alleges in his petition that arresting officers did not have a warrant for his arrest, and that he had committed no offense for which he would be lawfully arrested.

He further alleges that Palmer "instigated the said arrest and detention and imprisonment and procured his arrest through R. C. Parsley, chief of detectives at Port Arthur, by stating that he had stolen some property, which statement was false." He was kept in the Port Arthur jail from mid night until ten o'clock of the next day, after which he was released.

Practically all jurymen are Port Arthur residents.

COURT ENJOINS TRAPPERS HERE

Judge McDowell Issues Writs on McFaddin's Plea

BEAUMONT, Texas, Nov. 2.—Three injunctions against alleged trappers on McFaddin property south of Port Arthur were granted Thursday in 40th district court by Judge E. A. McDowell. The property mentioned is in the vicinity of Keiths lake and McFaddin beach.

The first injunction is directed against John Kibbin. McFaddin alleges in his petition that he leased the ground to Kibbin for fishing and trapping fur-bearing animals with the understanding that he was not to grant other persons rights to trap there and that Kibbin now has several other persons working with him, in violation of their contract.

The other two injunctions are directed against Harry Olson and Ed Viterbo, who, McFaddin alleges, are living on his property without his consent. He states that they have trapped animals to the value of $500 each. They have also according to the petition been contracting McFaddin's employees with local liquor, drinking intoxicating liquors, and making themselves generally disagreeable. He seeks no compensation for this but declares he is only anxious to have them leave his premises, the petition said.

Nab Juvenile Desperadoes When Auto Turtles

GALVESTON, Nov. 1.—After a hectic night of bold outlaws, two Houston youths, still in knee pants, were being held in jail here today on charges of burglary. Other charges are awaiting them in Houston, police said.

According to reports to police here, the youths are alleged to have broken into an automobile paint shop in Houston and stolen an automobile belonging to S. R. Durrenberger.

Started for Galveston and stopping for a supply of gas at a filling station drove off without paying for it. Stopped at another station and attempted to hold up the proprietor at the point of a pistol and a shot gun but were scared away.

Galveston officers, arrested the boys shortly after they went into the ditch.

RICH, HE GIVES $66 MONTHLY, SHE SAYS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 2.—Although Frederick W. Abbott owns property valued at $200,000 and receives a large income from it, he limits the living expenses of himself and wife and daughter to $66 a month and lives almost entirely on raw fruits and vegetables, according to the divorce complaint of the wife, Della D. Abbott.

Mrs. Abbott declared her husband desires her to follow the same sort of diet and live her daughter, 19 years old. Although the daughter desires to enter the university, her father has failed to increase her allowance so as to enable her to do so, the wife declared.

Abbott was said to have often boasted that he lived on $2.50 a week and when living alone he was said to have appeared he could get along on $1.50 a week.

"MERRY-GO-ROUND"
Life is discovered as a "Merry-Go-Round" in the spectacular photoplay of that title showing at the Peoples Theater.

It certainly is an interesting and plausible explanation of life that we are all passengers on a whirling merry-go-round of fate that picks us up at random and drops us off at will, changing the course of our destinies without any kind of leave.

"Merry-Go-Round" is essentially a love story, but a psychological, densely dramatic one, analyzing and mirroring the movements of life and showing some of the justice in bitter tragedy. The defeat of Austria at the hands of the Allies, crushing the pride that was hers, is shown in the story as an incident in the march toward happiness in social positions.

Mary Philbin, a new "discovery," expected to be a screen sensation, plays the role of a girl of the Praetor, an organ grinder of Vienna's. Comedy Island, Norman Kerry impersonates a proud young scion of nobility whose love for the girl is without the depth and sincerity at first to force a way for happiness through the maze of social restrictions surrounding them.

HAROLD LLOYD STARS
"Grandma's Boy," Harold Lloyd's comedy in five parts, and his most ambitious attempt is at the Pearce Theater today. It is the comedy that Bob Sherwood in "Life," said should win for Lloyd a "room and bath in the Hill of Fame."

The story has for its theme a subject as serious as the regeneration of a coward, but its seriousness adds to rather than detracts from the fun. Lloyd is the boy who, all his life, has been gripped by fear. One day, after his drunkenness has been driven very forcibly home to him, and he is filled with shame, his little old-fashioned grandma tells him a marvelous story of how his grandfather, who had distinguished himself in the Civil War, overcame his cowardice with the aid of a charm given him by a gypsy. Grandma gives the boy the charm, and what he does then is to go to tell. Suffice to say that the boy finds that courage is a matter of self-confidence, and he comes out on top.

The Letter Box

Editor The News.

There seems to be much agitation over the ex-soldiers' bill again, and judging from news dispatches from over the country, it is dangerously near passage at the next term of congress.

I do not believe, nor do I think that the national bonus is wanted by a majority of the able bodied returned ex-soldiers and sailors, for it was not with such a motive that we volunteered our services to the allies, but for the protection of our own loved ones and our own homeland. With out the aid of our government we too will realize that it would only have been the matter of a few months that the enemy would have plundered our own shores. The national bonus was not an idea created by the ex-soldier. He did not ask or expect a bonus. It was born within the convicting breast of the designing politician to advance his own political aspirations.

Should the bonus bill be passed the billions of dollars necessary for paying same would practically create war prices on all commodities used by everyone, and in the end the ex-soldier would not derive any benefit from the "bonus" and paid for duty and service he rendered his homeland. All that we ask is that proper care be rendered our wounded buddies.

Fellows write your senator to vote against the bill.

BACKERS CALL NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Backers of the boom for Henry Ford for president have called a national conference for November 12 in Dearborn to form a new party with the billionaire flivver maker at its head.

In the meantime Henry Ford maintains silence. All the labor and farm organizations of America, including the National Grange have been invited to send representatives.

Judge Edward J. Jeffries of Detroit, a leading democrat, presided at the meeting of the backers of the boom. In his opening remarks the judge declared it would be difficult to obtain the nomination of Ford by either the republican or the democratic convention but that more success lay in the formation of a third party with the billionaire manufacturer at its head.

Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York on his way home from his Texas trip, stopped off in the city of Chicago. Senator Copeland was interviewed. He asserted Henry Ford would be the thirty-first president of the United States if nominated by either major party and will continue to be known as the world's greatest automobile manufacturer if he attempts to enter the White House via the third party.

Official Washington is responsible for the propaganda that the republican leaders have loaded their guns to the muzzle, trained them on Henry Ford and that the guns will thunder following the announcement of Ford's candidacy for the presidency. Secretary of War John W. Weeks is to be the chief gunner.

Not long ago Ford threw a fire cracker at Weeks and the latter has been raging like a mad panther ever since. Now the republican gunners are supplying themselves with ammunition. A Michigan democrat, a leader of his party, has unfolded to the public the plan of the backers of the Ford boom.

There will be a national convention held early in the spring of 1924 and the farmer-labor leaders of the country will be there. Henry Ford will be nominated as the presidential candidate and the second place on the ticket will be given to a southern democrat, possibly John M. Parker of Louisiana. In May and June the democratic and republican presidential primaries will be held the country over.

Those who have planned the program look for a deadlock in the democratic convention. They say that Ford is as good a democrat as when Woodrow Wilson invited him to make the race for United States senator in 1918, and a better democrat than some of the men who have been mentioned in connection with presidential honors.

Sly, devilishly sly, are some of the national leaders who are playing the game this early in a presidential campaign and election a year away.

He is manager of the Hugo Stinnes steamship lines which touch at Cuban, Mexican and Gulf ports and as such will visit New Orleans and Galveston where the Stinnes boats have not been touching for the last four months.

His publicity manager says young Stinnes intends to look out for his shipping interests; to get acquainted with America and Americans. ## MUSSOLINI WANTS NO FAKE COLLEGE DEGREE

Dictator Mussolini of Italy has appeared in a new role, sitting in a comfortable examination hall with a lot of students of only about half his age, wracking his brains in the effort to wrest a university degree in juris prudence from the examination board of white haired professors. It all came about when the University of Bologna, one of the oldest in the world, expressed a desire to confer the honorary degree of doctor of laws upon the dictator.

Mussolini is so different. He said he could not accept a high degree which he had not earned but was willing to sit for examination. There are thousands of fakers the world over who are possessors of honorary degrees from universities and colleges. They are found in America; they are found in Europe; they are found in Asia and Africa; they are found away down here in Texas.

Mussolini has some regard for the eternal fitness of things. He is going to win the right by hard study to accept the degree from the University of Bologna. Mussolini is a man; he isn't a two-legged mouse seeking academic favors.

THE MILLER IS BUSY WITH THE MILLING BUSINESS

AND HAS NO TIME TO DO THE SPECULATION BUSINESS, TOO

Hedging enables the miller to put all speculative risk on the professional speculator. He is equipped to handle the risk, the miller isn't.

MONEY AT WORK has shown how and why the miller hedges, but did it occur to you to ask who buys the miller's wheat for future delivery?

The miller sells to a speculator. There is no reason for him to buy grain in advance unless he is speculating. If we did not have a class who studied markets enough to risk their money on their conclusions, the miller could not hedge.

In that case the miller would have to speculate and flour would sell at higher prices, to protect him against a possible loss from fluctuations in the price of wheat.

The miller has his own business. The professional trader makes speculation his business. Consequently the rest of us save money on our flour. (Copyright, 1922, Associated Editors)

YOUR HEALTH

By Dr. C. C. Robinson

Treatment of the scalp for dandruff and preventing the loss of hair is a most important part of your health program.

It is just as foolish to rub a bald head with hair tonic and expect hair to grow, as it would be to rub the hair on an egg and expect it to grow. The time to prevent dandruff and baldness is when you have hair and not when you haven't.

If you have a tendency to thin skin on your scalp, you will have your troubles keeping hair away. Thin skin, rather tight over the head, does not permit of a free circulation to nourish the scalp and the hair roots.

Your scalp is thick and moves, rather freely over the skull bones, your hair will probably stick to you to the last.

Now for the treatment: The two chief arches are cleanliness and scalp massage. A third may be added for good results, brushing the hair. A good scalp soap or green soap with a little alcohol added will remove dandruff as a shampoo.

If you insist on a preparation try this one: 1. One-half pint of 50 parts soap, two parts oil of lavender, and 22 parts alcohol.

Massage must be started in early youth and kept up through youth when hair is in its best condition and to preserve the hair. Use the finger tips to massage the scalp, night and morning.

Brushing should be done in a careful and systematic manner. It should be done at night and in the morning. Some other time during the day will also prove beneficial. Brush until you feel your scalp warm under the brush movement. It helps to remove the dandruff and stimulates the scalp and hair roots.

Shaving the head is frequent cutting does not help the growth of the hair.

At a first night performance in New York, a beautiful young woman attracted attention by rising and leaving her seat. She was a beautiful young woman, a belle of thirty years, who had married a County Zetland and lived abroad. He is convinced that this is Mary's daughter; but all efforts to establish her identity prove futile.

Clavering, determined to find out who she is, follows her home from the theatre one night. Luck is with him, for she has gone from her room and for she has not into the house. She asks him in and finally tells him she is the Countess of Zetland, a cousin of Mary Ogden's, that she had married a relative of Mary's husband, and that Mary is ill in a sanitarium in Vienna.

He meets her at the theatre a few nights later, goes home with her and tells her frankly he does not believe her story. He is known to have been a friend of Mary's, and he knows that Mary is ill in a sanitarium in Vienna.

THE NEWS' SOCIAL AND HOUSEHOLD

PRINTED SCARF STOCK IS WORN WITH THE STRICTLY TAILORED SUIT THIS YEAR

If the tailored suit is to succeed—and it does seem like the psychological moment for its revival—it will do so with the aid of the scarf.

Women have become so accustomed to the comfort of collarlessness that there is not force enough in all the cohorts of the designers and dressmakers to coerce them into wearing high collars—at least, for the present. On the other hand, the strictly tailored suit has been neglected just long enough to make it possible to bring it back with distinction.

American women have gained a reputation the world around for the smartness with which they wear the suit that is maintained and severe in line. But we know, and every one else knows, that the severe tailored suit never looks well without some sort of collar. All this really does not need repetition—every one knows it. The interesting thing is that we may be both comfortable and smart if we wear one of the new scarf stocks with our strictly tailored suit.

It is a simple enough matter. Select a scarf that is long and not too wide. Sometimes the wide ones are folded so that they may be used three-ways. Put the scarf around the neck evenly with the ends at the back, cross them and bring them around to the front. Here they may be knotted or tied in ascot fashion.

Often this scarf is worn over a low-cut blouse and may be removed quite with the nonchalance that one could scarcely believe. It seems to be a woman's privilege now to remove her collar when she wishes, though she would have little patience if her husband casually took off his collar and tie as a preliminary to luncheon or afternoon tea.

Long pointed scarfs are also used as accessories for the sport frock and not infrequently with the knitted sport jacket. But always becoming but undeniably smart is the bright colored scarf drawn taut around the neck and tied in a simple knot right under the chin.

As an embellishment to a simple sport frock, French women often wear long silk scarfs over one shoulder and then drawn diagonally across the bodice front and back and tied under the other arm, at hip or waist-line.

There really is no end to the ways scarfs can be used. A simple straight frock has a scarf draped about the neck with the fringed ends hanging down at the left side and the other end draped up in the front. Two scarfs plus a very little material are used to make another frock. One of the scarfs, extended straight down the back from shoulder to hem line and another down the front.

The scarves are set in and there is a panel of material at either side, joining the scarfs front and back. Sometimes a wide soft scarf is provided with little ribbon ties at the ends. The scarf is then thrown across the back and shoulders and the tie strings fasten it on the wrists of the wearer.

A richly figured silk scarf is cut to make a shoulder scarf and trimming for a turban hat. The section is cut from the middle of the back to trim the hat and then a section of crepe is set in this back section, which gives interesting contrast to the scarf. The turban is made of the same silk crepe that is used to make the section.

What Billy Is Up To

"Burt," the boy who lives next door to me, has some pet chickens, and I have a goose and a turkey," confided Billy Cut-out to Marjorie Clipper. "We've decided to have a Poultry Show."

"What help?" queried Marjorie. "Sure," grinned Billy. "If you could get some books that would tell us the names of prize chickens and how to arrange the cages in display, it would help a lot."

"I'll do it!" We'll make it the finest poultry show ever! We'll exhibit our neighbors' chickens as well as our own. And if you want an idea for advertising the show, I have it! Then Marjorie ran off to the library to read about chickens.

Color Marjorie's skirt and hose gray. Her blouse, too, is gray with pink figures, and the jacket is green. Color the hat to match the suit. She has a red book that tells about Anconas and Plymouth Rocks in her hand, and a big idea in her head!

Mrs. Abbey's selection of a yellow and black motif to feature the bridge party was displayed in the lovely margold clustered in crystal vases about the rooms and in the bridge table appointments, the score pads and tallies showing the chosen motif in clever manner. The favored theme was also reflected in the dainty nuptial cups.

Mothers—AND THEIR CHILDREN

First Aid.

One mother said:

We have a first aid corner on the pantry shelf where the children can reach. There is a bottle of linseed oil and lime water labeled "Burns," a bottle of turpentine labeled "Cuts," some carbolated vaseline, and a pile of soft rags for bandages. If I am out, the children know exactly where to go in case of slight accidents, and I teach them that no matter how slight the cut or scratch, cleanliness is necessary and there is no time to lose. This habit prevents infection and cures in time for little cuts or burns that might become unsightly if neglected.

The Tangle

LAST FRIDAY, LADIES FROM COTT TO LADIES FROM COTT.

I expect, little Marjorie, I was so completely engrossed in John and my wedding that I did not really look at Sydney Carter. I cannot conceive to you my surprise at finding that he is perhaps the handsomest man I have ever seen. He looks at least five years older than Jack, although they were in the same class at college; consequently there cannot be more than a year or two difference in their ages.

Perhaps, however, it is because his hair is that beautiful steel gray that we sometimes see framing a young but most intellectual and ascetic face. Great, sleepy, brown eyes, that are habitually serious but which at times become transparent windows through which a mischievous laughing character shows itself—eyes that seem always to take you into their confidence.

I tell you I was very proud when I entered the restaurant with Sydney on one side of me and the striking blondness of Jack looming up on the other. It may have been because I was so conscious of the fact that rarely had a woman entered the room with two such splendid specimens of masculinity that I seemed to feel a lull in the conversation and then a rapid buzzing which told me that we were the observed of the observers.

I was thankful that I was looking my best and had on one of my trouser suits gowns that I had worn very seldom. It was simplicity itself, a white hand-made frock which four hours only can make. I remember thinking at the time mother bought it for me of the patient stitches that some woman must have put into its embroideries and trims and in the sewing of its delicate lace.

I remember thinking at the time mother bought it for me of the patient stitches that some woman must have put into its embroideries and trims and in the sewing of its delicate lace.

I entered the restaurant with Sydney on one side of me and the striking blondness of Jack looming up on the other. It may have been because I was so conscious of the fact that rarely had a woman entered the room with two such splendid specimens of masculinity that I seemed to feel a lull in the conversation and then a rapid buzzing which told me that we were the observed of the observers.

I was thankful that I was looking my best and had on one of my trouser suits gowns that I had worn very seldom. It was simplicity itself, a white hand-made frock which four hours only can make. I remember thinking at the time mother bought it for me of the patient stitches that some woman must have put into its embroideries and trims and in the sewing of its delicate lace.

CAPPER URGES VET BONUS BILL

Favors Ford's Shocks Offer, Tariff Reduction

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Enactment of a bonus bill, acceptance of Henry Ford's Museum Shocks offer, downward revision of the tariff and reduction of both taxes and freight rates, are among the tasks set for the next congress by Senator Arthur Capper, republican of Kansas and leader of the "farm bloc" in an article in the current issue of Capper's Weekly. Though expressing disclaiming that his article speaks for the entire farm bloc and that it is "largely an expression of my own personal views of what the next congress should do," Capper's article is generally regarded here as the farmers legislative magna charta for the forthcoming session. "We must," Capper writes, "reduce freight rates, particularly on farm products. Give every encouragement to co-operative marketing. Further revise the tariff downward on necessities the farmer must buy. Enact the truth in fabric mills. Make further reductions in appropriations. Draft a new problem of economic public expenditures. Assist in developing a wider European market."

CHICAGO MEAT MEN CUT BUSINESS COST

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—It costs Chicago meat dealers less to do business than the retail meat dealers of New York and Cleveland, but in smaller outlying cities, the cost of operation is less than that of Chicago, according to Prof. Horace Secrist, director of the business university who recently completed a survey of the retail meat trade of the country. Chicago meat merchants pay 20 per cent to do business, Cleveland costs 21.6 and New York 21.5, and in outlying cities 18.1 per cent, he reported.

Terpid Liver Fills Body With Poisons—Peppinized Calomel Guaranteed to Relieve From Sickness and Suffering—No Nausea.

Calomel is the only medicine that will actually reach the liver, but ordinary calomel is so drastic that many have decried themselves of its fine effects because of its harshness. This objection has been overcome in Peppinized Calomel. Many who formerly could not take calomel are finding a most acceptable remedy in Peppinized Calomel because it is English Calomel (which doctors recognize as the standard of purity), treated with popain and other soothing ingredients that not only stimulate the liver to normal action, but sweeten the stomach and aid digestion. Many report that the use of Peppinized Calomel unclogs their systems of poisonous waste, brings back appetite, cures dullness to disappear and makes them "feel like new!"

Hart Drug Company and all reliable druggists recommend and guarantee Peppinized Calomel to bring relief between sundown and sunup or your money refunded. Try it—we guarantee you'll feel better tomorrow. (Adv.)

Houston Central Confident of Obliterating Yellow Jackets

Port Arthur Squad Faces Strong Crew In Visiting Eleven

Houston First String Intact; Central 3-to-1 Favorite; Coach Smith Whips Crew In Shape For Sensational Clash Saturday

Special to The News.
HOUSTON, Texas, Nov. 2.—With their grid machine oiled and thoroughly primed for another Houston victory over Port Arthur high school, the fast Central High eleven leaves here tomorrow for the Port City, where the race for district 14 honors will be continued. Central, with but one lone defeat against her credit this season through a fluke field goal made by Beaumont, is confident of obliterating the Port Arthur crew.

The Houstonians, with all their men back in the first line and with a hard week of practice to their credit, are more powerful than they have been at any time this season; they have more punch at the line, they hit harder, their backfield is more of a crushing device than Houston Heights claims, and the Central boys plan to sweep about the ends with straight football tactics to vanquish their ancient rival. If this fails, the Central crew will resort to a clever system of forward passing with which they gain consistently.

Through a bitter week of grueling gridiron practice, Coach Leo Smith has whipped the Yellow Jackets in turn for another tough football foe, Houston Central, although defeated by Beaumont High recently, is bringing a powerful squad to this city, and Coach Smith has labored hard with his eleven to make the locals fit for the fray.

Tomorrow's game, which will be played at Franklin Field at 3 o'clock, will probably be as hard a clash, or even harder, than the Heights club presented for local fans. Central is coming a bigger favorite than the Heights squad came, the latter claiming a 2-to-1 odds on the betting, while the Central lads claim a 3-to-1 favorite ship. And the dopesters have it all figured out that Port Arthur is going to lose another game.

To say the least, the Yellow Jackets will put up a bitter struggle. Both teams are thoroughly conditioned. The team that gets the most breaks tomorrow will likely carry off the honors, since the Yellow Jacket camp claims as crushing a line as any team in this section.

ZEVE FAVORED BY TURF MEN

Sinclair Colt Expected to Beat My Own

LATONIA RACE TRACK, Ky., Nov. 2.—Zev will start favorite in the Latonia championship tomorrow, provided the Sinclair colt shows no ill effects from his journey here. The triumphant son of the Finn has fair to carry more money than either of his rivals. My own, the challenger, or in Memoriam, western colt about which less is known, Hilalo, the Whitney entry, should be the long shot.

Sam Hiltroth, trainer of Zev, expected to have the lucky three-year-old here before noon and may give him the feel of the track late in the day, or may order him directly to his stall, four doors away from My Own's, until tomorrow.

The Sinclair colt is not as popular, perhaps as his record warrants, but the Hart-Mutuel machines will need opinion rather than sentiment on the morrow.

NO IMPROVEMENT

IOWA CITY, Nov. 2.—Iowa's grip on the Wolverines arrived in Cedar Rapids for tomorrow's game here. Iowa fans are far from confident the result of the Michigan fracas will be in their favor.

EXPECT EASY GAME

SOUTH BEND, Nov. 2.—After two strenuous inter-sectional games the Irish believed they were in for an easy time against Purdue tomorrow. Notre Dame is expected to show its wares before a large homecoming crowd here.

BOARD BOX CARS

ANN ARBOR, Nov. 2.—Wolverines today boarded Pullmans and box cars to follow the team which left yesterday for Iowa City to play what may be the deciding game for Michigan in its fight for the championship. Every regular was in good condition when the squad left here yesterday.

MEETS FLOYD TONIGHT

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Fighting for a place in front of the pack after Jack Dempsey's heavyweight crown, Jack Bonomi, the Canadian champion and Floyd Johnson, Iowa contender, will meet tonight in a 15 round bout in Madison Square Garden.

WING JOBS OPEN

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—As the Chicago squad embarked for Urbana today to meet the Illini at the Illinois stadium opening tomorrow, it was still doubtful if they would play the Maroon wing jobs and in the backfield.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 2.—There are four captains on the Harvard football squad this year. But all of them are not captains of the football team. Naturally, Ted Crosby is captain of the hockey team, Merrill is captain of the track team, Jenkins of the baseball varsity and Hubbard of the football squad. Quite a collection of distinguished gentes.

VARSITY LEADS NATIONS TEAMS

Longhorns Score 175 Points With Goal Uncrossed

Texas University has the best record of all big football teams in the nation as the final lap of the grid season opens. She has not been scored upon and has piled up 175 points. Many other big timers have not been defeated, but California has the only other eleven whose goal line has not been crossed this season. While Texas has made 175 points, the "Golden West" team was able to count only 99.

The Texas claim to perfection among the big teams of the United States is given support by the Longhorns' 16 to 0 victory over Vanderbilt. A week preceding the Texas game, Vandy held the powerful Michigan team to a 3 to 0 score. Michigan is acclaimed the strongest team in the "Big Ten" this season. No section has better football teams than those in that Midwest conference.

FARMERS ENTER POLO CONTESTS

College Station Takes Interest in Game

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Nov. 2.—Polo playing at the A. & M. college of Texas is being given new impetus by the enthusiasm of the cavalrymen who are vying for the title to have the winning team in the polo tournament that is being promoted to be held in San Antonio during the Christmas holidays to be participated in by college and university teams as well as army and civilian teams. Captain John L. Davis, commander of the cavalry unit of the college, and the other commissioned and non-commissioned officers of the unit are devoting all the time possible to the instruction of students. Horses are made available four days in the week from 2 to 4 o'clock for students interested in the sport, and all students with the exception of freshmen are invited to play and compete for places on the team.

"ELEVEN BEST"

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Although not facing tomorrow's battle with Northwestern after the showing against Wisconsin last week, the Gophers' coach was going over his squad carefully to choose the "eleven best."

STAR TACKLE OUT

COLUMBIA, Nov. 2.—Class Van Dyke, star tackle, will probably get started for Missouri when the Tigers meet the Kansas Aztecs at Manhattan, Kan., tomorrow. Van Dyke is bothered with a bad knee, received in the Nebraska game.

BANKRUPTCY CHARGED TO SPEEDWAY FIRM

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 2.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the Federal Court here Wednesday against the Kansas City Speedway Association. Insolvency is charged and a receiver is requested.

SCOTLAND BEATS IRELAND

GLASGOW, Nov. 2.—Scotland defeated Ireland, 1 to 0, in an inter-league football game here today.

Aggies Fight Best When Facing Tough Crew As Underdogs

Fans Expect Farmer Squad To Stage Comeback Over Bears; A. and M. Seldom Follows Course Mapped Out By Dopesters

Special to The News.
COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Nov. 2.—The brisk weather of this week has enabled the Aggies to train for the Baylor Bears whom they meet on the Cotton Place gridiron tomorrow with vim, vigor and vitality and to the scribes and other privileged ones of more or less official authority who have been around the training field at practice periods it appears that the Aggies have recovered from the slough of dejection which was a consequence of the drubbing S. M. U. gave them on Kyle Field last Friday.

It is a weak dope that can be compounded for the Aggies' conduct in the game tomorrow, so apparently weak as to make it seem too unreliable for any dependence and so doubtful as to be hardly acceptable to the sports editor. As ingredients for any dope of speculation there are the elements of the finest kind of play displayed by the Aggies in all games preceding that of last week, and then the evidence of utter disorganization which came to light in their game last Friday. Their game against Sewanee and L. S. U. would put the Bears in insignificant position in comparison and their game against the Mustangs would certainly make the Aggies the underdogs in the coming fray.

And there seems to lodge the most dependable indications. The Farmers have always fought their best fights in the underdog position. They seldom follow a course of action prescribed for them by the sports writers.

Blue Nose Fails to Pass Buoy; Race Is Declared "No Title"

HALIFAX, Nov. 2.—Canada has not yet won the international fishermen's trophy signifying the speed championship of North Atlantic fishery boats.

HOPPE COMES BACK

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—With a fine rally after Edward Horneaux had made a run of 241, Willie Hoppe flashed some of his old championship form and won 500 to 425 in the third round of the world's 182 balling billiard championship tournament.

EXES ATTEND GAME

DOUGHNUTS ARE STRICTLY U. S. A.

Dietetically Questioned; Psychological Effect Good

Dietetically doughnuts and fried cakes are looked upon more or less askance. But carefully fried doughnuts enjoyed sensibly surely can be a treat. The cheer and good will embodied in these homely and purely American half-buns have a psychological effect of almost as much value to the human system as a bread. No wonder, then, that the doughnuts of "high food value" are so popular.

In reality doughnuts are bits of real dough sweetened and fried in deep hot fat.

Fried cakes are of the nature of a "quick bread" dough fried in deep hot fat.

Some cooks maintain that half loaf and half fat is preferable to all fat for frying. That there is less trouble about the doughnuts cooking fat when the half-loaf half fat is used.

Other cooks prefer a vegetable fat for deep fat frying.

This question each housewife must answer for her self.

But the temperature of the fat must be carefully watched and gauged during the whole frying process. This determines the fat soaking difficulty. The fat should be hot enough to brown an inch cube of bread from the soft part of the loaf in 60 seconds. An iron kettle is desirable as the heaviness of the fat holds heat and prevents the fat from cooling when the cakes are dropped into it.

Doughnuts on heavy brown paper when removed from fat.

Sweet milk fried cakes should come closest immediately to the top of the fat, brown on one side, turn and brown on the other. Then only once. Sugar and fat fried cakes can be turned several times while frying. The fat must kept at an even temperature.

Sweet Milk Fried Cakes.
One cup sugar, 1 cup milk, 3 tablespoons melted lard, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 2 eggs, 1-4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1-4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon salt. Flour to make a soft dough.

Beat eggs until very light with sugar. Add one cup of flour and beat until smooth. Add melted lard and beat again. Beat in milk, sifted baking powder with one cup flour and stir into mixture. Add salt and apple. Add enough more flour to make just as soft dough as can be handled. Put part of the dough on a well floured board, pat and roll to one-half inch thickness, cut with a doughnut cutter and fry in deep hot fat.

Sour Milk Fried Cakes.
One cup sugar, 3 tablespoons melted butter, 2 eggs, 1 cup sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda, 4 cups flour, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon nutmeg.

Cream butter and eggs. Add sugar well beaten. Add sour milk. Add remaining flour and stir until smooth. Press on a well floured board, roll and cut. Fry in deep hot fat.

Potato Fried Cakes.
One cup mashed potatoes, 2 tablespoons butter, 3 eggs, 1-2 cups of sugar, 1 cup plain grated nutmeg, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup sweet milk, 7 teaspoons baking powder, 5 cups of flour.

Beat butter into mashed potatoes while they are hot. Let cool and add eggs, one at a time. The eggs should not be beaten before adding to the mixture. Beat until mixture is very light. Add sugar, nutmeg, salt and milk. Mix and add flour and baking powder. Stir into batter and work until smooth. Press on a well floured board, roll and cut. Fry in deep hot fat.

Raised Doughnuts.
Two cups sugar, 1 cup yeast, 1-2 cup lard, 1 cup milk, 2 eggs, 1 cup soda, 1-2 teaspoon salt, flour.

It is possible to make the yeast from a bakery.

In the evening scald the milk, let cool to lukewarm and add yeast and sugar. Let rise over night. In the morning add eggs well beaten, salt, lard, nutmeg and three cups flour. Mix well and add soda dissolved in a little hot water. Add salt and flour to make a stiff dough. Let rise and if necessary add more flour to handle. Roll on a well floured board, shape and let rise until double their bulk. Fry in deep hot fat and drain on brown paper.

JAM SANDWICHES

Eight slices of stale bread, butter, jam, frying butter.

To make frying butter—One cup flour, 1 tablespoonful melted butter, 1 tablespoon cream, 2 eggs, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons warm water.

The bread should be cut about one-quarter inch thick. Make sandwiches spreading half the slices with butter and jam and covering with the remaining slices. Cut sandwiches in diagonal squares or triangles, depending on the original shape.

Melt flour into mixing bowl, add salt, yolk of one egg and cream. Slowly add water, beating until it is smooth. Beat vigorously. Let stand half an hour. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry and fold into mixture. Dip each sandwich in the batter and fry in deep hot fat until a golden brown. Serve very hot.

FRENCH TOAST

Eight slices bread cut about one-half inch thick, 1 egg, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1-4 cup milk.

If eggs are separated two should be used in place of one. Less milk is necessary.

Beat egg slightly, add milk and seasonings and mix well. Dip bread in mixture and fry in a golden brown in half butter and half lard. Serve very hot with syrup. Do not let bread stand in the egg mixture after dipping. Dip each piece and fry immediately.

EMERGENCY LUNCHEON

Butter thin slices of stale bread. Line a baking dish with the buttered side toward the dish. Sprinkle with grated or finely chopped cheese, season with salt and paprika and a dash of mustard. Add another layer of bread, sprinkle with cheese and seasonings. Pour over one egg well beaten with one cup of milk. Cover with a layer of bread, buttered side up. Let stand until the bread absorbs the milk. If the bread is not soft, carefully pour milk in at the side of the dish. Bake in a moderate oven until the cheese is melted and the top is brown.
